Statement of Intent:

As an applicant for the board of TRC, I understand that should I be selected, I will serve my term to the best of my abilities with eagerness to help the board members and the organization. In applying for this position, I am committed to:

- Participating in monthly board conference calls
- Participating in Board meetings
- Aiding and assisting on the Committee I agree to participate.
- Working with the board on the annual conference to the best of my abilities.

TRC understands a balance of work, family, and life and is happy to accommodate those responsibilities as a priority. However, involvement as a TRC board member does require a time commitment. We look forward to your participation and involvement with a great team focused on educating and promoting recycling in the great state of Tennessee.
